

XtraMax Ink Cleaner I49

Ink roller cleaning and conditioning paste

KEY CHARACTERISTICS

- Specific density: 1,100 g/ml
- Paste
- Suited for conventional ink
- Suited for NBR rubber
- For sheetfed, heatset and coldset application
- Cleans thoroughly before colour change

PACKAGING

6 x 700 g jar

FEATURES AND BENEFITS

Restores ink acceptance and flexibility of rollers

- No loss of print quality.

Soft consistence and highly tacky

- Picks up ink residues and dirt extremely well
- Good and even distribution on ink roller
- Enables quick colour changes from dark to light shades

Strong cleaning action

- Economical in use
- Less standstills

INSTRUCTIONS FOR USE

Wash the ink rollers with a conventional roller wash. Apply the ink roller paste on the ink roller and let the ink roller run short time. Afterwards clean the ink rollers with a conventional roller wash.

TRANSPORT & STORAGE

Protect against extreme weather conditions.

Do not store at temperature above 35 °C or below -10 °C.

Take all necessary precautions to avoid environmental pollution due to accidental leakage.

Version 1.0, state 1/10/2012 - All data contained in this technical information sheet is based upon lab tests and practical experience. The user is aware that user specific circumstances may influence the results. This technical information sheet is made for information purposes only and it does not constitute a warranty or guarantee in relation to the correctness or completeness of the data. Errors, omissions and literal mistakes excepted, subject to modifications at any time. The user acknowledges that the data contained herein is only effective as long as no updated technical information sheet is issued which replaces and supersedes any former version of this technical information sheet.