

When file was ripped any area of the gradient that was overlapped by the image would show the gradient steps. Any area outside this overlap would be a smooth gradient.

Box denotes original placed transparent Photoshop file. No mask was in original file.

Gradient steps would show in areas such as this overlap area