

Fig. 5.

When a drop of oil is put on water it may do one of two things:

- (a) it remains intact as a lens-shaped drop floating on the surface*
- (b) most of it remains as a drop, but a layer one molecule thick spreads from the drop over the water*